Dear General Carter:

STAT

Congratulations sir on your new assignment. You are now in a position to check into the matter I discussed with you here in [redacted]. I would appreciate it very much. I have just tried again to have CPO here reinstate me so I might draw the post differential and also enjoy the privileges recently passed pertaining to home leave. CPO declared me still ineligible unless I can provide them with a written statement to the effect that I was being considered for employment as I maintain. Any assistance you can give me will be greatly appreciated and if you cannot I will still appreciate the time you gave me here [redacted] and that you took to read this message.

STAT

Respectfully yours,

[redacted]
